- Transportation and Maritime Trade:
  - At least 200,000 seafarers working as ship crew have been marooned since the pandemic. Attempts to negotiate “right to transit” agreements have failed. If crews are unable to be relieved, vessels will not be able to operate due to minimum manning requirements. If plans cannot be made to expeditiously change out crews, this could affect global maritime trade and US imports and exports.

County Reports (Reported by MHCC)

Glenn

- Local healthcare clinics/facilities reported an increase on COVID-19 testing and we are distributing swabs and viral test media, as well as personal protective equipment (PPE) to the testing facilities.
- Glenn County has closed restaurants (dine in), bars, and indoor entertainment centers as one of 19 counties the state has ordered to do so as of July 1, 2020. Glenn County is not meeting three of the state metrics (new case rate, positivity %, and daily testing.)
- The county has requested an Optum Serve test site.
- Public health employees are performing extensive contact tracing and the majority of cases are related to four or five separate clusters of close contacts who were initially exposed during large family gatherings. These outbreaks then expanded to work places.
- The health officer has played a vital role in educating the work places and providing masks, etc. for employees.

San Francisco

- Working with Department Public Health Department Operation Center Logistics to launch a testing site in Potrero Hill to operationalize the week of July 6, 2020.
